

About Our Department

The Human Services Department's role is to provide the temporary relief needed by members of the community that have fallen on difficult times.

Exeter is a town that looks after its own and strives to provide assistance to their citizens who are in need of a helping hand. The Human Services Department will do their upmost to aid/connect the public to another organization that can provide some form of relief if the town is unable.

Our goal is to provide residents with emergency assistance in compliance with RSA 165.
